

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2163 – HB 2451

January 24, 2012

SUMMARY OF BILL: Removes language that a court shall not be limited from permanently modifying a decree of child custody or visitation, when a parent in the armed services volunteers for multiple deployments outside the state, preventing the parent from effectively caring for the child.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumption:

- Removing the language regarding the power of a court to permanently modify a custody or visitation decree will not significantly increase the caseloads of the juvenile, trial, or appellate courts.

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
